Thousands Ready To Go On Strike If Leaders Call

Nearly 100,000 Workers in San Francisco Area Promise to Walk Out If Strategy Committee Decides on Strike in Sympathy With Longshoremen; Taxi Drivers Strike, and Butchers, Laundrymen and Retail Delivery Men Will Quit To-morrow

Associated Press

San Francisco, July 13.—Housewives and men in the street felt the United States Pacific coast's maritime strike to-day as an increasing number of labor unions joined the movement toward a general strike in the San Francisco Bay area.

Shortages of food, gasoline and fuel became an actual threat. With a move toward a general strike gaining headway in Portland, Ore., and rumblings of a similar movement heard in Los Angeles, the San Francisco strategy committee called a meeting of all unions this afternoon and a general strike is expected to begin.

Nearly 100,000 workers in San Francisco and the trans-bay cities of Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda have joined themselves to walk out in sympathy with 27,000 striking maritime workers if the strategy committee says the word.

NAME REMOVED

Twenty-five hundred taxicab drivers and busmen have walked out here at 5 o'clock this morning, bringing to 6,571 the number who have already joined in a protest for immediate settlement of the waterfront strike. Nearly 5,000 men—butchers, laundrymen and retail deliverymen—will join them to-morrow night.

The present situation, in which Dr. C. Geiger, city health officer, said: "The very health of the city is in danger," gave residents an inkling of what a general strike would be like.

With garden trucks being hauled outside the city, wholesale merchants and San Francisco's fine restaurants will only serve to those who have been paid by Saturday night. Sufficient meat is on hand to last five days, but wholesale butchers already have walked out, and retail meat cutters will hang up their cleavers to-morrow night.

MRS. ROOSEVELT HOLIDAYS IN HILLS

Associated Press
Rossville, Cal., July 13.—Somewhere in the mountains of California or in western Nevada, where her daughter, Mrs. Curtis Dall, is establishing a Nevada residence for a divorce, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt to-day is trying to keep herself out of the way from being the President's wife.

She was last seen publicly in a coffee shop, patronized chiefly by railroad men, by rail men, eating peaches and cream, toast and coffee after newspaper men had followed her automobile from Sacramento, where she had landed from an airplane.

Mrs. Roosevelt was accompanied by her friend, Miss Lorraine Hickok, who had met her at the airport and had arranged that the President's wife should be taken to the Sacramento Hotel, which she left through an alley exit within a few minutes. The "First Lady" refused to say where she was going.

NORTH VANCOUVER CAMPAIGN ENDS

Voters Will Go to Polls to Choose M.P.P. To-morrow; Hon. G. S. Pearson Speaks

Associated Press
North Vancouver, July 13.—After two weeks' steady campaigning, supporters of Mackenzie Matheson, Liberal candidate, and Mrs. E. P. Stevens, C.C.F. candidate in the provincial by-election in this constituency, prepared to-day to leave the issue in the hands of the voters.

The main polling station here will be at 8 o'clock to-morrow morning in the E. P. Hall on West 11th Street. The hall close at 8 in the evening. H. E. Gandy, polling officer. A number of smaller polling booths are situated in out-of-the-way districts of the riding. It is believed approximately 10,000 voters should be counted shortly after 10 in the evening.

ELECTION MAY BE IN FALL

Some at Ottawa Say Premier Bennett Will Delay Until After June

A Dominion general election this year is a matter of conjecture but in some Liberal quarters it is definitely believed that Premier Bennett will go to the country in the fall, said Senator A. H. King on his return to Victoria yesterday from Ottawa.

One report is there will be a fall session with an adjournment over the Christmas holidays with proceedings at the final gathering rushed for the Premier to attend.

On the other hand, it is contended that in view of the trend of public sentiment as expressed in the elections of Ontario and Saskatchewan, following a similar change in British Columbia, and the results of a number of federal by-elections, Premier Bennett would be justified in delaying the election.

Two brothers of Joseph have been convicted and sentenced to be hanged for the murder of Dominion Radio Department Constable F. M. Gleeson. The Dominion officer and Provincial Police Constable Harry Carr were slain at the Stamford Hill reserve, near here, May 22, when they went to arrest Ernest George.

EXPLAINS BRITAIN'S TREATY POSITION

SIR JOHN SIMON
Foreign Secretary

Britain Approves Locarno Extension But No Secret Pact

Sir John Simon, Reporting to Commons on Recent Talks With French Foreign Minister, Says London Government Not Taking on Any New Commitments in Continental Europe

By George Macmillan, Canadian Press Staff Writer

London, July 13.—Minister of Foreign Affairs Sir John Simon announced to-day that the United Kingdom had given the diplomatic support of a "bravevoing well-wisher" in the French proposal for an Eastern Locarno, but he added Britain could not accept any new commitments in continental Europe.

In a brief speech to Hon. D. C. Macmillan, Minister of National Defense, George L. Warren, parliamentary economist, pointed out that tourists carrying the portable radio sets which are becoming increasingly popular have to leave a deposit with the customs when they enter Canada. To collect the deposit on return they have to leave by their own car.

This is a different procedure than that adopted by the Canadian government in the case of the motor vehicle aid measure. Under that scheme there was a government fund from which loans were made direct with a repayment scheme over a period of years. It was semi-officially intended that the government does not guarantee the loans, but the guarantee is secured by taxation.

It is also understood the Department of Industries has under consideration similar aid of about $6,000 for a cherry processing plant at West Summerland.

This is a different procedure than that adopted by the Canadian government in the case of the motor vehicle aid measure. Under that scheme there was a government fund from which loans were made direct with a repayment scheme over a period of years. It was semi-officially intended that the government does not guarantee the loans, but the guarantee is secured by taxation.

Mr. Warren pointed out that the tourist business in that it has a tendency to cut down travel.

Motor tourists generally like to enter Canada at one point and leave by another. In this case it is three hours by boat, their deposit is returned.

Mr. Warren suggested that the deposit be waived as in the case of golf clubs, rifles, outboard motors or fishing equipment. More radios are brought in than outboard motors he says.

He supported Senator W. M. Dennis' proposal to prohibit the sale of firearms to tourists.

Mr. Warren also supported the proposal made on the basis of absolute reciprocity.

"This," the Italian message added, "is particularly the case when such tourists offer a further possibility in the field of reduction of armaments."

He was last seen publicly in a coffee shop, patronized chiefly by this railroad centre by rail men, eating peaches and cream, toast and coffee after newspaper men had followed her automobile from Sacramento, where she had landed from an airplane.

Mr. Roosevelt was accompanied by his friend, Miss Lorraine Hickok, who had met her at the airport and had arranged that the President's wife should be taken to the Sacramento Hotel, which she left through an alley exit within a few minutes. The "First Lady" refused to say where she was going.

MANY MINERS AT WORK

Associated Press
Anchorage, Alaska, July 13.—One man was dead to-day and another was reported recovering to-morrow from severe head injuries following two separate attacks which left a shell-shocked war veteran during a period of temporary insanity.

Robert McFadden, forty, was arrested yesterday and charged with murder "Till blist" in the gold camp in the upper Kuskokwim country.

David Strandberg, prominent placer operator, said on his arrival here by plane, all camps, however, are running short of supplies.

TWO KILLED IN CLEVELAND RIOT

Associated Press
Cleveland, Ohio, July 13.—Two persons were killed and three seriously injured in a riot to-day at the Cuyahoga County relief administration office in downtown Cleveland.

The gunfire started after someone in the office shot and killed a man operating near the door.

He was found lying, partially conscious, on the service station floor.

Shortly before the shooting, George McFadden, twenty-nine, was climbing into a motorboat when he met McFadden as he came ashore and said he had been beaten about the head with an axe handle while cutting McFadden's cabin on Snake Hill, where they both lived.

NO NEW PROMISES

Sir John Simon said the Italian message came from Premier Mussolini and that it said among other things, "The attitude of Italy is a signatory to Locarno is similar to that of the United Kingdom, on the clear understanding that the eastern part is one of mutual guarantee and does not imply fresh engagements on that part. Italy regards with sympathy the proposal made on the basis of absolute reciprocity."

MUCH WORK ON ROADS NEEDED

Canadian Press
Vancouver, July 13.—British Columbia's chief need in the field of public works is not roads, but improvement of present roads. Patrick Phillips, Deputy Minister of Public Works, told the Western Professional Division of the Engineering Institute of Canada at yesterday's session of its convention here.

The roads in every province were bad in its road system, but admitted B.C. was perhaps farther behind than the sister provinces. This was due largely to the high cost of construction in this province and the fact there were some roads undeveloped by other already burdened communities.

Great Budgets For Japan Forces

Canadian Press
Winnipeg, July 13.—The naval ministry will ask $50,000,000 yen (about $185,000,000) as its 1935 budget, and the Ministry of War $150,000,000, including expenses of the troops occupying Manchukuo, according to Japanese newspapers.

Indications the new Ontario government will lose no time in getting the beer and wine law in operation came yesterday at the second session meeting of the Legislature. The order-in-council making the bill passed at the last session of the Legislature law was signed by the Lieutenant-Governor a few hours after it had been approved by the Legislature.

A great deal of organization work remains to be done before the beer-rooms open to offer beer by the glass to all consumers and restaurants and hotels begin serving wine and beer with meals, but the order from the government to the new one-man liquor commission is "full speed ahead."

Market Protected
For B.C. Growers

Canadian Press
Vancouver, July 13.—The "dumping duty" imposed Wednesday by the Dominion Government will make importation of peaches, plums, pears and melons from the United States prohibitive, according to fruit dealers here. As a result, the early marketing of the fruit here will be delayed about two weeks.

The extra duty was designed to protect the early season market for British Columbia fruit growers.

Keys Lost Ten Years Are Found in Fish

Canadian Press
Victoria, July 13.—Premier Mitchell Hepburn's "Big Parade" is continuing as he wages his campaign to cut government expenses. Several officials in the Premier's department will lose their positions.

"I find I can cut expenses in my own department by well over 50 per cent without impairing efficiency," said Mr. Hepburn yesterday, on his second day in office.

BRITAIN WOULD CUT MEAT IMPORTS

Canadian Press
Wellington, N.Z., July 13.—Proposed for reduction of British meat imports from New Zealand have been made in the last few days. It was revealed yesterday evening by Minister of Customs, Rt. Hon. J. G. Coates.

The government could not discuss the matter, said Mr. Coates, because the "commercial communications were confidential."

New Zealand is an important exporter of mutton and lamb to the United Kingdom.

ONTARIO POWER DEAL INQUIRY

Toronto, July 13.—The Ontario Government will lose no time in getting the beer and wine law in operation came yesterday at the second session meeting of the Legislature. The order-in-council making the bill passed at the last session of the Legislature law was signed by the Lieutenant-Governor a few hours after it had been approved by the Legislature.

A great deal of organization work remains to be done before the beer-rooms open to offer beer by the glass to all consumers and restaurants and hotels begin serving wine and beer with meals, but the order from the government to the new one-man liquor commission is "full speed ahead."

Mr. Justice Latchford stated a preliminary hearing would be held this afternoon, with a hearing for the taking of evidence next Tuesday.

COWS CAUSE
STIR IN TOWN

Associated Press
Fayette, Ga., July 13.—A herd of cows from the parched sections of North Dakota was unloaded here yesterday and as soon as the doors were opened the cattle went loco, stampeding down Main Street and heading for the nearest stream.

Mothers quickly hurried their doors, mothers franticly lunged frightened children to safety and small boys climbed the nearest trees.

For a while the cattle had full possession of the town, until they had quenched their thirst. Then they had to be driven out of town by a herd of ordinary cows—all but two which in the maddened rush for the creek had disputed the right of way with a freight train and lost.

Hastings announced he would attempt to have Vienna authorities hold Poderjy pending an investigation into the charge.

NEW SUGGESTION BY BERNARD SHAW

London, July 13.—George Bernard Shaw, patterning after the birdlovers, yesterday suggested turning the world into a sanctuary for human beings, with no shooting allowed.

Observing at a luncheon in support of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds that same refugee had suggested turning the world into a sanctuary for human beings.

"That does us humans a great deal of credit, because there are no sanctuaries for human beings."

He continued that although arrangements for shooting human beings "on the largest possible scale" had been brought to perfection, he had no objection to the formation of a society for the protection of human beings, or an institution in asylums where they cannot be shot at.

ADVERTISING OF LIQUOR DEBATED

Canadian Press
Toronto, July 13.—Opposition to newspaper advertising of liquor was expressed yesterday by Premier Mitchell F. Hepburn when asked what course the Ontario government would follow in this regard.

"Personally," said the Premier, "I am opposed to liquor advertising in Ontario newspapers and other publications. I want to be fair to the temperance people of this province. To me, it seems an anomaly to try and teach temperance, on which we all are agreed, and at the same time allow liquor advertising."

Opposition of the ban on advertising of which the new lone commissioners Edmund G. Odette, has expressed himself in favor of advertising on the ground the press has been "too long penalized" in this regard. But it is accepted no such move would be made without authority of the government.

Mr. Justice Latchford stated a preliminary hearing would be held this afternoon, with a hearing for the taking of evidence next Tuesday.

COWS CAUSE
STIR IN TOWN

Associated Press
New York, July 13.—Selma Tuverman, sister of the late Agnes Tuverman, filed a perjury complaint yesterday with Assistant District Attorney Harold W. Hastings against Ivan Poderjy, the husband of the woman who disappeared last December.

The complaint was based on a charge that in his application for a license to work, Agnes Tuverman, Poderjy swore he never had been married.

Selma Tuverman declared she had proof Poderjy was married to Margarita Susanne Ferrand in England March 24, 1933.

Hastings announced he would attempt to have Vienna authorities hold Poderjy pending an investigation into the charge.

The officials said they were convinced "anything that has a tendency to restrict the exportation of cattle to Great Britain will be detrimental to the livestock industry of Canada, particularly to Ontario."

They were demonstrating on a British government announcement that it is contemplating a long-term trade policy to help the home producers by controlling further by means of quotas and an import levy, all imports of meat supplies.

ANTI-U.S. RIOT IN MEXICO CITY

Mexico City, July 13.—Three persons were killed in a swinging club yesterday as anti-American demonstrators "Down with Yankees imperialism" broke up a meeting of the "Gold Shirts" in a downtown plaza.

The anti-Pacifists distributed handbills attacking Ambassador Josephine Du Pont of the United States.

The "Gold Shirts" claim to have a membership of more than 50,000, advocate expulsion from Mexico of "undesirable foreigners," but they have professed friendship for the United States.

SMOKE SCREEN ALLEGED

Washington, July 13 (Associated Press)—Senator James Pope, Idaho Democrat, yesterday accused the Du Pont munitions interests of "laying a smoke screen" in anticipation of the United States Senate's entry into the war materials business. The Senator, a member of the investigating committee, said Du Pont profits jumped nearly 1,000 per cent during the Great War.

SUNSHINE CAMP NEEDING HELP

$800 Cash, Sand For Sandpile, Toys and Magazines

Appealed For

If Sunshine Camp is to be run to capacity for the balance of the season,

$800 is needed, states Fred Landsberg,

President of the Camp. Sunshine

Fund. It is only with every cent giving his whole-hearted support that this project of giving mothers and children a brief holiday in the country by the sea is made possible.

Applications which are made from the municipalities of Oak Bay, Saanich and Esquimalt, as well as Victoria people are pouring in to the office of the Sunshine Welfare Association, and if no one is to be disappointed, further funds must be forthcoming.

Sand for the children's sand-pile and bathing beach is badly needed, and donations of toys and magazines would be appreciated. The campers and committee acknowledge with thick hearts the gift of three dozen gramophone records from Kents Music

Store.

In the party who hope to leave on Wednesday next is one mother who came to Victoria fifteen years ago.

Think what having no responsibility for three meals a day, either to procure or to cook, would mean to her, to say nothing of the benefits she will gain from long hours of rest in the sweet cool country air. Several in the party are struggling back to health after serious illness, and the short holiday will, it is hoped, set them entirely past any danger of a setback.

Mrs. Angus Campbell and Mrs.

Minnie Moore gave the campers a treat of ice cream and cake this week, and the Ministerial Association has arranged for a brief service to be held on Sunday afternoon.

Your Baby and Mine

By MYRTLE NEVER ELDERED

TRY TO UNDERSTAND ADOLESCENT RUDENESS

Every parent is occasionally mortified by the jaunty rudeness of her adolescent boy or girl toward her. This is a natural stage of life in which the young person is openly insulting to adults, for it does not fit him to be in contempt for all things and persons adult in nature.The attitude is the direct outgrowth of the child's estimate of himself as a superior person, indifferent to the standards and ideas exemplified by grown-ups.

RUDENESS

It is the exceptional adolescent who does not look upon his parents and his teachers as just plain dumb.
Because of this emotion, it is almost impossible for him to be civil to them. He is disdainful of the pointless exchange of social chit-chat.He hates people who notice him and those who do not. He cannot answer the question, "What is the reason?"However, he is eager to show that he considers them "dumb clucks."He can only answer by being defiantly rude and repudiating all the accepted civilities.The rudeness infuriates his parent in turn. It makes her seem to be a spoilt, pampered child and in her training.

One who knows and understands the psychology of the adolescent would accuse a parent thus wrongly.The adolescent is, at the period between twelve and fifteen, like a pugnacious, whose points knock out if one but glances his way.

TRANSITION PERIOD

It is well to understand his confusion, baffled, critical state of mind and ignorant, impulsive nature. Only then will discover that adults do have ideas beneath the gray and pointless chatter which seems to him so time-wasting. He will find that adults do have a sincere interest in him, though they may express it in quite a different way than he does.
He will find a use for the ready formulae of social usage which are time-saving and not time-wasting. It may mean nothing to say, "How are you?" and answer, "I am fine," but it would be enormously comforting were we to encourage him to think up some ways in which to express our causal interest in those we meet.Social customs, the formulae of etiquette which adolescents detect and feel ashamed to use are grown into.
The transitory stage between childhood and manhood is painful and adolescent rudeness is pointed to the parent but luckily it is outgrown.To-morrow, "Children Will Not Sit On Our Day."When the last Ice Age was at its height, approximately 12,000,000 square miles of the earth's surface was covered with ice and about twice the size of several seas.

Party of 175 Here Considers Means of Getting to San FranciscoThe prospect that 175 touring Knights of Columbus from San Francisco will have to get back to their offices by the end of the week, and they wish to take no chances with a growing business and industrial tie-up. If it is decided to use the big passenger planes, it is likely the tourists will board them at Seattle on their flight south, though it is still possible such an eventuality can be avoided.The majority of the party, prominent Knights and their wives, are from San Francisco and will get back to their offices by the end of the week, and
they wish to take no chances with a

up. If it is decided to use the big passenger planes, it is likely the

on their flight south, though it is still possible such an eventuality can be avoided.Members of the party are anxious about the effect of recent events in San Francisco on their businesses.
Mr. McKeon, for instance, runs a chain of food markets in the Golden Gate city and he understood that many of his stores were scheduled to go out on strike at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening.The Knights of Columbus party left San Francisco by train on June 30 and joined the specially chartered C.P.R. boat, Princess Alice, for a trip to Alaska.Alice called at places never visited before by a passenger boat.The Californians also enjoyed a trip to Harrison Hot Springs and other spots on the mainland before preparing for the journey back.The prominent man with the party is John J. O'Brien, San Francisco district attorney; Mr. S. Francisco; Judge Muraskay of the Superior Court; Judge Marks of the Municipal Court; Dr. Frank Frates and Dr. Elliot Ryan, prominent physicians; Dr. Louis Oviado, well-known medical research man, and Miss Aileen Ryan, superintendent of the tuberculosis hospital at Princess Alice.Father Richard Ryan was with the party as the representative of Archbishop Hanna, volunteer mediator in the San Francisco industrial trouble.

Ruth Vosper Found Not Guilty of Extortion Intent
In VancouverCanadian Press
Vancouver, July 13.—Ruth Vosper, charged with intent to extort money from a Vancouver physician by threatening to accuse him of indecent assault, was acquitted in County Court by Judge J. N. Ellis yesterday.John Clifford Brunt, former Vancouver police constable, pleaded guilty to the same charge weeks ago and was sentenced to two and a half years in the New Westminster penitentiary.According to the physician's evidence, he had paid between $500 and $700 to Brunt under the latter's instructions to blacken the physician's reputation."I have no sympathy with the accused," the Judge said, after acquit-ting Miss Vosper, "and I am not sure that she should not be with him (Brunt) in jail," but he added that he had to deal with the charge on the basis which he held was insufficient to convict her."I have no hesitation," the Judge continued. "I say that I think the doctor has done nothing whatever.
There is not the slightest evidence of any kind that he did anything of an improper nature. I think he acted in a gentlemanly way all through and was perfectly innocent of the nature of the crime that has

DONNA of the BIG TOP

by BEULAH POYNIER

1934

"Pete's" Rader called to a sandy-haired youth standing beside a window chewing on a toothpick. "Take this gentleman up to 44."

Con intended to telephone to the Siddle farm from his room, but he discovered, upon entering, that there was no telephone there. The boy placed his coat on a rack for that purpose and turned to go.

"Wait a minute. Do you know where the Siddle farm is?"

"I'd like to get a message out there. What's the quickest way to do it? Send a special delivery letter or a telegram?"

"Telegrams would be if the telegraph office is open, but it isn't. It's open on holidays and so's the post office. You could telephone though Siddle has got a phone."

"I don't want to phone. Would it be worth while if I gave you a dollar to take a note for me?"

Pete hesitated. "How soon's it got to go?"

"Not right away."

"Well, after dinner will be tim- enough. You ought to make the trip and be back in an hour."

"Sure. My car's a flivver, but it's got speed. Is the note ready?"

"Yes. The boy tripped away, whistling and Con unpacked one of his bags.

It was consideration for Donna that prompted him to notify her of his arrival, but when he sat down to write the message he found it difficult to frame what he wanted to say.

In his bag he carried stationery with huge yellow and red letterheads proclaiming Renfrew's circus and Con's mouth twisted grimly as he started to write on it.

He placed the sheet of paper in a long yellow envelope, also inscribed with the name of the circus. Then he rang and Pete answered the summons. At sight of the envelope the boy's gooseberry eyes popped wide. "Good gosh! Are you with a circus?"

"Yeah." Pete remembered he finally wrote. "Well, Donna, I am in town and want to see you. Am at the Commercial Hotel, but suppose you would rather meet me some place else. Let me know when and where, but make it soon."

"Your old friend, Con."

He placed the sheet of paper in a long yellow envelope, also inscribed with the name of the circus. Then he rang and Pete answered the summons.

At sight of the envelope the boy's gooseberry eyes popped wide.

"Good gosh! Are you with a circus?"

"Yeah." Pete read the address.

"Mrs. William Siddle. Why say that's Madeline, isn't it?" Madeline. She was a circus girl, too. She—why she was in this here show."

"Of course, of course. Run along."

"Gosh, to think you the feller that went into the lions' cage!"

CHAPTER XXXIII

Donna opened the door of the farm house and faced Pete Rader. She had never seen him before and greeted him with a bewildered "Yes?"

RENT GROUND FOR ASCENT

Ald. James Adam, Back From Long Trip, Tells of Balloon Arrangements

When the giant stratosphere balloon, the largest ever built, arrived yesterday this week from the Stratospere Shop, in the Black Hills of South Dakota, thousands of spectators will watch it rise into the air from special parking spaces on the surrounding ridge. All the adjoining locality has been marked off in twelve-foot allotments for which $2.00 is being charged.

The high efficiency scheme, by which funds are being collected for the expedition was explained here today by Alderman James Adam, who, with Mrs. Adam, returned yesterday from a 7,000-mile motor trip which included a jaunt to the Black Hills.

While in the east, Alderman Adam was taken to the bowl from which the Mississippi will rise. He and his party met the men in charge of the committee and inspected the intricate equipment.

The district, marked with numbered crosses which will designate parking spaces of those paying to watch the ascent, he remarked.

In the course of his colorful trip the alderman went up Mount Rushmore and saw the huge engraving of George Washington on the mountain side.

SPANNED GOLD

One day of their trip was devoted to panning gold in Montana, where they picked up quite a lot of "color."

At the Literary International Convention at which there is a chapter of the local club, Alderman Adam paid high tribute to John Newson, a former Victorian, who, in his opinion, delivered the feature address of the gathering when reporting on his recent trip to Europe.

To Mr. Newson he attributed much of the success in restoring harmony between clubs in the British Isles and those in the United States. "He

NERVOUS NAN THE KIDS ALL CALLED HER "SKINNY"

Mother! Here's How Ovaltine Cures Child Nervousness

While Adding Weight a Pound a Week or More

OVALTINE is a scientific food beverage, approved by thousands of doctors and child specialists largely because of its remarkable power to increase both weight and nerve power.

Recent scientific tests conducted among school children in New York State have demonstrated that nervousness was actually decreased as much as 30% in two weeks—and in some cases as much as 50% in one week—when Ovaltine was given. 85% of all nervous, under-par children in these tests responded almost at once.

While these tests deal mainly with nervous children, they are equally important for underweight children, too. For child specialists have long observed that underweight and nervous go hand in hand.

Thus, when Ovaltine is given, it acts to break up the "vicious circle" that nervousness and underweight tend to create. And usually adds weight at the rate of a pound a week or more.

You simply give Ovaltine, shaken up with cold milk—and children love its delicious taste. (Note special free offer of Orphan Annie shake-up mug in coupon at the right.)

Make the Most of Summer... Use the Railways for Touring.

Public opinion in Canada has enthusiastically endorsed the movement for increasing tourist travel. From every point of view only good can result. There is, however, a tendency to associate this movement almost wholly with the bringing in of visitors from other countries.

Of course these guests are welcome and their numbers cannot be too great; but Canadians should themselves share in the pleasures of their own country to the fullest extent possible.

To enjoy Canada it is not necessary to traverse hundreds of miles. Quite frequently a short railway journey will open up unexpected avenues of happiness and health at little cost of time and money. Longer trips will naturally provide more decided changes of atmosphere and scene and will prove well worth the time and expense involved.

Let us show our visitors that we ourselves appreciate what our country offers so bountifully. In doing so all business will be stimulated. A vacation tour, or a short trip, can therefore be not only a source of pleasure to oneself but of distinct advantage to the country.

The railways through their transportation systems, hotels, lodges and summer resorts are very important contributors to the comfort and happiness of the pleasure seeker, whether he be the welcome stranger within our gates or the resident Canadian. Canadian National Railways are equipped to provide full and satisfactory service and the cost is pleasantly low.

You can wholeheartedly recommend the C.N.R. to your friends abroad, and you can use it yourself, feeling that in your search for pleasure, no less than at other times when in quest of business, it is your safe, dependable, and willing helper.

Detroit Tigers Move Into American League Baseball Lead

THE SPORTS MIRROR

Victory Places Tigers Bare Percentage Point Up on New York Club

CHICAGO SLICES LEAD OF GIANTS

Detroit Tigers, who seem to like nothing better than a good scrap, had the league lead to-day by the simple but effective expedient of trouncing the one club that was ahead of them—New York Yankees.

It was strictly Detroit's day—as the Tigers set out to do—winning four of the games of brilliant performance that has been them ahead since June 25 despite Detroit's equally fine work. And when it was all over the score read Detroit four, New York two. The figures on the percentage column were Detroit .522, New York .521, and both teams were looking forward to three remaining battles of the series.

With the Tigers well down in their important clash, New York Giants also were taking a setback in a slightly less important series. The Giants got only an even break in a doubleheader with Pittsburgh and wound up just one game ahead of Chicago, which took a single decision from Boston. Lefty Lavallee turned in a fine effort, but was unable to win 1 to 1 in the opening as Gus Suhr and Earl Grace supplied homers for the decided runs. The Giants concentrated their hitting in the second game to win 11 to 6.

Chicago's advance was largely the result of the unquenched efforts of a crippled Boston infield. The Cubes won 7 to 4.

Even breaks

Two other doubleheaders up the National League pyramid resulted in even breaks. The third-place St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Phillies 8 to 5 in a game that turned into a slugfest after Pitcher Paul Dean sprained an ankle sliding into a base in the third inning. The Phils kept right on clutching home runs, but Davis and won the second game 8 to 2.

Then came the Dodgers and Cincinnati Reds provided the lighter touch in a pair of games which produced a total of fifty-two hits, including a pair of circuit swats by Gordon Slade. Brooklyn won the first game 9 to 8.

Down the line the American League stood: the Chicago White Sox defeated the Philadelphia Athletics 3 to 2 when a ninth-inning run decided a duel between George Earnshaw and Melvin Cain after Bob Johnson had pasted his twenty-sixth homer for the A's to tie Jimmy Piersall for the major league lead. The Washington-Giants doubleheader, the only game on the schedule, was raised out.

Another half game was shaved off of their four-game lead yesterday evening when the Bears dropped 10 to 11 decision to the Royals at Rochester.

Starting out on the ninth enabled Syracuse to the Buffalo 7 to 7, and the Chiefs went from there to win a night game at 10 to 7.

The other two scheduled games were rained out.

Vancouver Colts Gain Clear Lead

Draw With Victoria in British Columbia Tournament to Head Pack By Three Points; Gibbons Bowling Star For Locals; Okanagan Victors

Vancouver, July 13.—Vancouver Colts gained a clear lead of three points yesterday in the race for the British Columbia cricket championship when they emerged from a hard struggle to force a draw with Victoria, the last pair of Colt losses being at the expense when the visitors called time.

Victoria scored 182 and Colts compiled only 155 for nine.

The time element entered into the other two matches as Gile staged a successful run-getting run against the clock to better by nine runs the declared total of 205 for nine wickets set by Aurora and Burrards lost on the last ball of the match to Okanagan.

The Aurora total was largely the result of steady batmanship in which the majority of the team had a share. Credit for the Gile victory went to George Gibbons, who hit a brilliant run in an exhibition standard with four and seven. Pease and Salmon aided with useful scores and the Gile had almost ten minutes to spare when the winning hit was made. They closed with 214 for eight wickets.

GIBBONS IS STAR

Locs of enterprise on the part of Victoria batmen accounted for the comparatively low total of 151 made by the Islanders. Fortunately for Gile, however, the visitors had the ball and the Colts had difficulty avoiding defeat. With five wickets down for fifty-three runs, Gibbons and Wessman put in a spell of inspired bowling and two additional Colts wickets fell without adding to the score.

Two brothers, members of the James Bay Athletic Association, crack Victoria rowing club which made rowing history four years ago by sweeping practically every major event, will oppose crews from the Victoria and Portland clubs in the inter-colonial, feature event of the day.

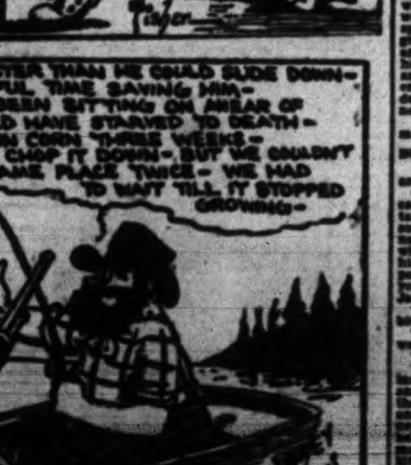

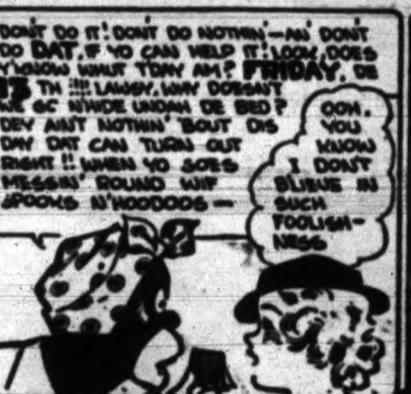

GOOD ENTRY LIST

Jimmy and Arnold Mann will be in the Victoria shell with Al Haumann and Otto Arnold in the Portland entry and Tom McDonald and Jim Nagy carrying the colors of the Vancouver club.

Tommy Curtis and Johnny Gresso of the V.R.C. have qualified for the crackweight singles against Max Billingsley and possibly Alex Webster.

Boyle was again in effective form with the ball for the defending champions, securing six Burrard wickets and coming up only thirty-seven runs. With the last ball won, the Burrards had two wickets to fall. Curtis was in charge of the attack and forced Pain to lift his bat in the hands of Barnett. On the last delivery, he clean bowled Salt Jr.

What Can
A Father
Do for His Daughter?

THE GREATEST blessing that can befall any girl is to have her father for a friend, but this piece of good fortune only happens to those over whom gracious Lady Luck presided. Most girls haven't even a speaking acquaintance with their fathers. They have never had a heart-to-heart talk with them in their lives, and probably most fathers are under the impression that their daughters' vocabularies consist of the single cry: "Oommie Oommie!"

Naturally this state of affairs is the father's fault, because he established the relationship between himself and his daughter and taught her to look upon him as a sort of cash register she could punch for fine clothes and sport cars, but from whom she could not expect any human sympathy and consideration. Father is naturally the only one likely to have around the house, officially around the first of the month, but no one to whom Jane would dream of telling her secret thoughts or her affairs. He is too much of a stringer.

And father considers that he has done his full duty to his daughter when he dresses them beyond his means, and it never occurs to him that he has any obligation to fit to fit them for life, and that girls need their father's influence even more than they do their mother's.

Especially does the modern girl need her father for a friend, because she lives in a man's world of which her mother knows nothing. The travels made which have been held out since her mother was a girl and when she was a teenager, her mother cannot direct her, but her father is familiar with all of the histrionics and the pernicious places where one is likely to slide and go over the precipice unless one puts on the brakes and slows down. And he knows where to hang out the red-light signals and put up the stop signs.

Mother can only squawk hysterical warnings like a frightened hen at every step her chickens take away from the home coop, and they pay no attention to her because they know that most of the bugaboos she sees are imaginary, but they listen to father because he has been down the path himself and they know he knows what he is talking about. It is really only father who can teach a girl how to take care of herself, but he can't do it if he is not on sufficiently intimate terms to discuss questions of conduct with her.

Girls do so many foolish things that mess up their lives that could be avoided if only father watched over them with a friendly interest instead of leaving them to stumble into trouble through sheer ignorance about boys. And about marriage, for instance.

A girl hasn't any real reason of knowing anything about a young man. She can see if he is good-looking. She can know if he has good manners and a keen line. But that is about all. She doesn't know anything of his character, or his habits, or his past life, but there is nothing that father can't find out about a youth by a few well-directed inquiries.

Yet the great majority of fathers do not even take the trouble to get acquainted with the young men with whom their daughters associate. Often they do not even know by sight their future son-in-law until Jane drags him in by the hand and says: "Father, John and I are going to be married."

Incidentally marriage that end in divorce could be prevented if father could give Jane the lowdown on them and say: "Bob is all right for a dancing partner, but he is nothing but a playboy and his wife will have to take in owing to support him." Or: "John is a bad bet because he drinks." Or: "Ferry is a philanderer." Or: "Algerine is just plain shiftless." If only father would just give Jane a friendly tip before the fell in love and it was forever too late.

Jane needs father to teach her to be a good sport and to take it on her to fight instead of surrender to misfortune. She needs a father who will say to her, "Lie up to your contract" when her marriage begins to wobble, instead of a mother who will say, "My poor persecuted darling, bring your children over here."

A girl needs a father to take enough friendly interest in her to prepare her for life by having her taught some way by which she can be self-repecting.

Mother expects her, of course, to marry a millionaire and live in luxury the balance of her days. Father knows that whether a girl marries at all or not in these days is a gamble, and that even if she does get a rich husband he may lose his money, but that if she has been taught to stand on her own feet she can support herself if need be. And if he has money to leave her, he teaches her how to take care of it so that she does not become the victim of every sharper with whom she comes in contact.

Or, there are thousands of ways in which a father can befriend his daughters if he will. What a pity that so few men take the trouble to do so!

UNCLE WIGGITY AND THE BARN CAT

"You nervous, Barn Cat," said Uncle Wiggity. "But it is calm and peaceful here. You don't live all down and not be so jumpy."

"Thank you, I think I will," mewed the Barn Cat, and she sat down on a log and closed her eyes.

"Oh, and she jumped right over Uncle Wiggity's head."

“ONLY A BIRD

"Oh, easy! It's only a bird!" laughed the Barn Cat, and she got up and walked over to the window and gazed out. The sun was all of a sudden again, something she had not seen for a long time. She was nervous of the bird, but this time it was not a bird, but a small mouse.

"Thank you, Barn Cat. I'm an amateur," said the Barn Cat. "I'm not a hunter, but the mouse was taken in the trap and I'm not afraid to eat it. And I'm not afraid to eat the Barn Cat, either."

"I'm not afraid to eat the Barn Cat, either," said the Barn Cat, and she sat down on the log, smiling at the mouse.

"Uncle Wiggity, I think I will," mewed the Barn Cat, and she sat down on the log, smiling at the mouse.

"I think I shall have a nice adventure now," said Uncle Wiggity. "I did not take him to get away from the snow and here he is again. I'll take him to the farmers' field. He has a new field of his own, the field of the old man, hungry and useless, just as he was when he first came to the field. He is the old man's field, driving him away so he can't nibble at the rabbit."

Uncle Wiggity and the Barn Cat were fond of playing on the sand and swimming in the ocean, that they had not been able to do for a long time. When he asked them this morning, if any of them wanted to come adventuring with the old man, they all said no, except the Barn Cat, who said, "I'm not afraid to eat the Barn Cat."

"Thank you. We're going to bathe and then play on the sand," said Uncle Wiggity.

"Uncle Wiggity goes alone."

"I'm not afraid to eat the Barn Cat," said Uncle Wiggity. "I'm not afraid to eat the Barn Cat, either," mewed the Barn Cat, and she sat down on the log, smiling at the mouse.

HOROSCOPE

"The stars incline, but do not compel."

SATURDAY, JULY 24, 1934

Astrologers read this as an uncertain day in which erratic aspects entered the zodiacal influences. It is a time to drop in on old friends, but not to make new ones.

In the morning hours, correspondence of every sort will be well directed. Details should be cleared and bills paid.

Afternoon is the most favorable time for the marriage of the month, for lucky days for weddings and for meetings with others.

Concerts and theaters are under favorable signs that seem to promise a series of good fortunes for performers. April 24th is the best day for a walk in the country, and for a walk among the animals, boys and girls will be sure to enjoy the adventure when, all of a sudden, a rabbit comes out of the bushes, or a squirrel comes out of a tree, or a bird comes out of a bush.

"It's strong as if there was a sugar gum factory here," laughed Mr. Lewis, who had green leaves on stems that were wonderful purple in color. The leaves were all green, but the stems were all of a reddish, orange color. He stopped toward the end of the field and said, "I think what a fine time we had when we were young boys and girls were with him to enjoy the adventure when, all of a sudden, a rabbit came out of the bushes, or a squirrel comes out of a tree, or a bird comes out of a bush."

"Oh, my goodness! How you frightened me!"

What the stars incline, but do not compel, is to drop in on old friends, but not to make new ones.

Persons whose birthdays it is have the best chance of success in their affairs. The stars incline, but do not compel, to drop in on old friends, but not to make new ones.

SAILING SHIP REACHES PORT

Seattle, July 12.—After a voyage of twenty-four days, the sailing schooner Commodore, only windjammer serving a trade route on the Pacific, arrived at Port Gamble at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning from Honolulu. When the vessel delivered a cargo of lumber, the liner Troubridge, which was en route to San Francisco, was turned one day out of Honolulu and thirteen days from Yokohama.

The four-master came up from the islands in ballast. She was towed from the Cape by the tug Goliat of the Puget Sound Tug and Barge Company. The Commodore, commanded by Capt. E. H. A. Krantz of Victoria, and owned by L. H. and Cooke Limited of Honolulu, will await developments in the strike of longshoremen before loading for the return voyage to Hawaii.

Many Ships At San Francisco

San Francisco, July 12.—The twin Mavys, M.V. M. and M.V. M. arrived yesterday afternoon. Of her silk cargo of 571 bales, 171 bales were dispatched inland in a Western Pacific train for the east coast. The vessel also carried other cargo to San Francisco and Los Angeles, and was two and one-half days out of Honolulu and thirteen days from Yokohama.

Other ships arriving and docked before midnight yesterday included the Admiral Gove from Los Angeles, Benjamin Franklin from the Far East Line, Fred Lorch from Portland, Oregon, from Seattle, J. L. Lorch from Vancouver; Olson, Union Oil tankers; Manulani from Honolulu; Scottish Chief from Hawaik; Steel Range from Portland.
